

baseball less than three years. It was not until he joined the Angels that he had an opportunity to prove his worth on a high-class club. Mc-

Mullin spent his first two years in the "bushes."

Terry has been the sensation of the Pacific Coast league this year. His fielding has caused him to be compared favorably with "Buck" Weaver, who graduated from the Pacific Coast league. He is an opportune hitter and has been particularly dangerous in the pinches.

McMullin's fielding, coupled with Terry's work, has made the Angel keystone duo the talk of the minor leagues. The two youngsters have participated, starting and finishing, in more double plays than any other pair in the league. McMullin is hitting over .300. He was once given a brief try-out by the Detroit Americans, but was rejected.

Hooper's triple and two singles helped Red Sox down Macks. Ruth allowed five hits.

James was ineffective and Indians beat Tigers. Roth poled two hits and counted two runs.

Vance, a recruit, pitched fine ball for Yanks, but his pals were helpless against Hamilton and Browns won.

Cravath's homer with three on beat Giants, Phils making clean sweep.

Pirates outslugged Braves twice, but split two games. Adams and Rudolph were winners. Hinchman, Baird and Wagner batted hard.

Lear held Cards to three hits and Reds won easily. Tom Leach hit two singles and stole two bases.

Bluejacket puzzled Pittfeds and Brooklyn won again. He gave three hits.

Miles Main, Kawfed pitcher, dislocated his arm heaving against Buffalo. Chase's two doubles helped Buffalo to win.

Davenport, who pitched a no-hit game a few days ago, let Newark down with two singles, St. Louis winning easily.

Now the bantamweight is clouded. Kewpie Ertel of St. Paul took it last night when he was fouled by Kid Wil-lams in the fifth round. Williams' backers yelled bloody murder and robbery, but there seemed little question Ertle had been hit low. Once
